

Sales & Acquisitions

ASG - Your professional partner for aircraft sales

ASG focuses on aircraft sales and acquisitions. Aviation experts who have known the market for over 20 years use their international networks and experience to find the right aircraft, to offer the aircraft potential customers and to negotiate with manufacturers, investors, banks and insurance companies in order to obtain the greatest benefit for the customer.

Buyers and sellers benefit from our knowledge and many years of experience.

We arrange:

- pre-purchase and pre-sales inspections
- quality monitoring
- acceptance procedures
- engineering services
- aircraft registration
- interior refurbishment and completion management
